

1-877-908-6960~ Can I Change My United Ticket to Another Person? – Detailed Guide

Many travelers find themselves wondering whether they can simply give their United Airlines ticket to someone else. This question comes up often, especially for passengers who cannot travel and want another friend or family member to use their booking. While United Airlines offers flexible options for modifying flights, they do not allow you to transfer a ticket to a different person. Airline security rules require that the name on a ticket matches the passenger's government-issued ID.

Still, United does provide options for name corrections, legal updates, and spelling adjustments. If you need help right away, you can always contact United Airlines customer service at +1-877-908-6960, where an agent can guide you through your available options.

How do I update my name on United?

How do I change my name on United after marriage?

United understands that many travelers change their last name after marriage. If your legal name has changed, you can request an update on your booking and MileagePlus profile. To complete the process, you may need to provide:

- A marriage certificate

How much is the change fee for United Airlines?

United typically does not charge for basic name corrections, such as fixing typos or formatting issues.

However, for more significant legal updates, you may encounter:

- A possible processing fee
- A fare difference if the ticket must be reissued

The exact cost depends on your fare type and travel date. To find out the specific fee for your reservation, contact United customer service at +1-877-908-6960, and an agent will review your booking.

Can I transfer my United ticket to another person?

Unfortunately, United Airlines does not allow ticket transfers to another traveler. Once a ticket is issued in someone's name, it must be used by that same individual.

If the original traveler cannot go, you still have options such as:

- Changing your travel dates
- Updating your destination
- Canceling for a flight credit (depending on your fare rules)
