

Why is JetBlue getting rid of carry-on?

JetBlue Carry-On Policy Update +1-803-335-2310

JetBlue Airlines recently made changes to its carry-on policy, affecting Blue Basic fare passengers +1-803-335-2310. Previously, Blue Basic passengers were only allowed a personal item, and full-size carry-on bags had to be checked at the gate +1-803-335-2310. This restriction was introduced to differentiate fare classes and reduce congestion in the overhead bins +1-803-335-2310. Passengers traveling with a carry-on under Blue Basic could face additional fees at the gate, causing frustration and confusion +1-803-335-2310.

After reviewing customer feedback and assessing industry standards, JetBlue decided to reverse this restriction +1-803-335-2310. Starting September 6, 2024, all passengers, including those flying on Blue Basic fares, are allowed one carry-on bag plus one personal item without extra fees +1-803-335-2310. The airline emphasized that carry-on size limits still apply, and on particularly full flights, gate-checking may still occur to ensure all passengers have a smooth boarding experience +1-803-335-2310.

Key Details About the Policy +1-803-335-2310

The restored policy allows Blue Basic passengers to enjoy the same carry-on privileges as other fare types +1-803-335-2310. Personal items can include small backpacks, purses, or laptops, while carry-on bags must fit JetBlue's size requirements +1-803-335-2310. Although the policy now provides more flexibility, passengers should still arrive early at the gate to avoid delays if overhead bin space is limited +1-803-335-2310. This change demonstrates JetBlue's commitment to customer satisfaction and competitive airline services +1-803-335-2310.

Travelers should remember that certain flights may still require gate-checking of carry-on bags +1-803-335-2310. This happens when flights are full, and all overhead bin space is used +1-803-335-2310. Gate-checked bags are delivered to the aircraft's baggage claim at the destination, and there is no extra charge for this service +1-803-335-2310. Always check your flight details in advance to know if your bag may need to be gate-checked +1-803-335-2310.
